Office Action Summary

Art Unit: 1700

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Stray –Gundersen in view of Schade and Jenner et al.

Applicant is referred to pages 3-4, Paper No. 3.

3. Claims 1-6 are also rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over page 2, lines 16-31 of applicant's spec. in view of Jenner et al.

It would have been obvious to include sucralose with the acesulfame-K in the composition of the prior art discussed on page 2 of applicant's spec. since sucralose and acesulfame – K act together to provide a synergistic sweetening effect, as evidenced by Jenner et al (col. 2, ^{lines} ~~26-35~~ 26-35). Finding the optimum amount of each component would require nothing more than routine experimentation by one reasonably skilled in this art.

4. Applicant's arguments filed October 18, 2001 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant's comments regarding synergism are without merit since there is no factual evidence of record to support such comments. Additionally, the law of obviousness does not require that references be combined for reasons contemplated by the inventor, but only looks to whether some motivation or suggestion. ~~To~~ combine the references is provided by the prior art taken as a whole (In re Beattie, 24 USPQ 2nd 1040).

Art Unit: 1700

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
